

PETITION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS (IFP)

INSTRUCTION SHEET

These instructions are meant to give you general information and not legal advice.

A Petition to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (IFP) may be filed if you do not have the necessary funds required for filing a complaint or petition for custody or support. If you currently receive public assistance from the Department of Human Services or SSI benefits, you will need to complete the IFP Petition and provide proof of your benefits. If you do not receive these benefits and are requesting that the Court permit you to proceed IFP, you will need to complete the IFP Petition and the Poverty Affidavit.

1. Complete, date and sign the In Forma Pauperis Petition (IFP) and Poverty Affidavit (if necessary) with as much information as you have. (detailed instructions included)
2. Make two copies of the papers you are filing.
3. File the original completed IFP petition with the complaint, petition, or motion you are filing with the Court by mailing or hand-delivering them in person to:

Clerk of Court
1501 Arch Street – 11th Floor
Philadelphia PA 19102

You will not have to pay a filing fee on the complaint, petition, or motion while the Court is reviewing and deciding your IFP petition.

4. If the petition is granted, you will not have to pay a filing fee on the petition or on any other documents you file in your case. If the Court denies the petition, you will be required to pay the filing fee for your complaint, petition, or motion within ten (10) days, or the complaint, petition or motion will be rejected.

HOW TO FILL IN THE PETITION:

HEADING (CAPTION).

Fill in the names of the plaintiff and defendant in the heading of the petition exactly as they appear in the initial custody complaint. The plaintiff is the person who filed the custody complaint. The defendant is the person against whom the custody action was filed. The plaintiff and defendant keep those titles throughout the case. Check off the type of action for which you are filing by marking the appropriate box in the heading. The Domestic Relations Number (D.R. No.) is the number assigned to your case by the Court. You can find this number in the caption of your Complaint for Custody. The PASCES number is the number assigned by the Court to your support case. If you have never filed a previous complaint in custody or support, the Court will assign you a number.

LINE 1.

Check off whether you are the Plaintiff or the Defendant in the case and fill in the amount of the filing fee.

LINE 2.

Stays the same.

LINE 3.

Check off whether or not you are receiving DHS or SSI benefits and the type you are receiving if applicable. If you receive these benefits, you will need to show proof to the Court. If you do not receive DPW assistance or SSI, you will need to complete the Poverty Affidavit.

VERIFICATION

Date and sign that the statements you have made are true. Fill in your address under your signature.

ORDER

Do NOT complete anything in this section. The Court will complete this section if your request to proceed IFP is granted.
