

Joseph H. Jacovini regularly represents clients in complex and sophisticated corporate matters and commercial transactions including mergers, acquisitions, and commercial agreements in a career spanning more than 50 years. A Dilworth Paxson partner and highly-respected attorney, Mr. Jacovini represents publicly held, private, and family-owned corporations and businesses in matters of governance, control transactions, and agreements. He also represents government entities and individuals in litigation matters.

Mr. Jacovini regularly counsels companies on strategic planning for public and private financings; proxy and other control contests; mergers and acquisitions; corporate reorganizations; and domestic and international litigation. Mr. Jacovini also advises on financial and accounting issues, as well as financings and securitizations.

His commitment to civic and charitable organizations in the Philadelphia region is renowned for its depth and breadth. Mr. Jacovini is Chairman of the Board of Casa Farnese and serves on many others, among them: Beyond Celiac; Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia; LaFrance Corporation; Drexel University, Drexel OnLine, and Thomas R. Kline School of Law; The Philadelphia Orchestra; and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation - Delaware Chapter which presented him with their 2015 Breath of Life Award for his decades-long support and leadership.

The Republic of Italy presented him with the Award of Merit Cavaliere Ufficiale in 1988. He received the Pinnacle Award in 2003. Mr. Jacovini formerly chaired the Pennsylvania State Education Delegation to the People's Republic of China, and served as Protocol Chief on the City Delegation to Tianjin, China.

Mr. Jacovini has consistently been chosen by his peers for recognition in The Best Lawyers in America. In 2016 he, along with his fellow Dilworth partner Stephen Harmelin, was selected by The Legal Intelligencer for a Lifetime Achievement Award as an elite lawyer who has “helped to shape the law in Pennsylvania, whether through their work on the bench, assisting those in need of legal services, building a firm or any other means.”

He received his M.A. from Villanova University, his LL.B. from Harvard Law School, and his B.A. from the College of the Holy Cross.