Judge Robert Simmons

Judge Marc Harrison

The State Office Building is under the Governor's jurisdiction. If the State Office Building is closed, all Workers' Compensation hearings at this location are canceled. Notice of closure of the building for inclement weather may be found at www.state.pa.us and may be announced on KYW-1060.

If the School District of Philadelphia is not closed or if it has a delayed opening, and you are unsure if Workers' Compensation hearings will be held because of inclement weather, please contact the individual Judge's office for information.

This policy pertains only to the Spring Garden office, and may be subject to change upon written announcement.
