Hear what public interest attorneys need to know—changing rules and changing landscapes in public interest law

- Consider how changes in school discipline, public benefits, unemployment compensation and family law may affect advocating for the disadvantaged
- Evaluate how the Affordable Care Act and health care reform has affected legal aid programs and client eligibility
- Determine how to advocate for sexual assault and domestic violence survivors dealing with housing, immigration, employment and family law
- Receive an update on the most recent U.S. Supreme Court Cases affecting the public interest community

Attention NON-public interest attorneys – something for you too

- Explore the cultivation of alliances with academia and develop strategies for connecting to practitioners, and resources to enhance advocacy
- Learn how to collaborate with non-traditional partners, social service providers, law enforcement and medical providers to effectively advocate for your clients
- Examine PA's Right-to-Know Law, a powerful tool for uncovering information about state and local government. Learn the nuts-and-bolts of this law and pending amendments to the statute.p

Network-Network!

- Interact with your colleagues throughout the day
- Join your colleagues and attend the Public Interest Section Annual Awards Ceremony and Reception immediately following the CLE program conveniently held in Wanamaker Building. (Learn more and register for the reception at www.philabar.org)
