

The Justinian Society of Philadelphia
&
Philadelphia Bar Association's Criminal Justice Section

cordially invite you to a Reception presenting

The Annual Beccaria Award* to

Marc Stephen Raspanti, Esquire

Partner of Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP

Member, The Justinian Society

Recognizing his contribution to the cause of justice and the advancement of legal education

Thursday, November 17, 2016 • 5 p.m. - 7 p.m.

Presentation

Mayor's Reception Room (202) - City Hall
Light Fare & Refreshments following the Presentation

Free of charge to:

The Justinian Society members and all members of the Bench and Philadelphia Bar

The Beccaria Award Co-Chairs

Co-Chairs, The Justinian Society

Elizabeth Preate Havey, Esquire

Francesca A. Iacovangelo, Esquire

Chair, Criminal Justice Philadelphia Bar Association

Kevin Harden, Jr., Esquire

Your reply would be appreciated by Monday, November 14th by calling 215.545.0706 or email: jct.uta@att.net

*Cesare Beccaria, an 18th Century Italian scholar, was an early proponent of many of the tenets of modern criminal law. His visionary work is credited with aiding the subsequent European penal code reform and the eventual development of the American criminal justice system. The Beccaria Award is presented annually to a legal jurist, scholar or practitioner for outstanding contributions to the cause of justice and the advancement of legal education.

www.justinian.org