

That Was Then

1979 – The Philadelphia Lawyer as The Shingle

NEW SHINGLE QUARTERLY MAGAZINE ROLLS OFF THE PRESSES at Philadelphia Printing Properties, Inc. as pressman Joe Gleason (top-left) examines the first pages of the 8,000-run 48-page glossy magazine. Meanwhile, Philadelphia Bar Association employee Gerard Jackson (bottom-right) adds the magazine to packets for the 21st Annual Bench-Bar Conference.

THIS SHOULD NOT BE A DANGEROUS PLACE.

Commercial property owners must make properties safe. We help victims of assaults, shootings, rapes or other vicious attacks hold the criminals and property owners – whether a restaurant, bar, nightclub, mall, parking lot, or other location – accountable for failing to prevent horrible acts.
