NOTICE

TO: All Members of The Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association

Reception sponsored by The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia
May 15, 2017

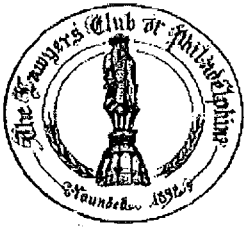

The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia is in its 125th year. Its purpose is to bring fellowship, camaraderie, and civility between the Bench and the Bar. The Lawyers' Club sponsors three receptions a year for its members. One reception is held to honor the Judges of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and Philadelphia Municipal Court. A second reception honors the Pennsylvania Appellate Judiciary. A third reception honors the Federal Judiciary. The latter two receptions will be in September and October.

The Reception on May 15, 2017 will be attended by the Judges of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and the Philadelphia Municipal Court. The Honorable Idee Fox will be honored at the Reception for her service to the Philadelphia Court system for her work in both Family Court and in the Trial Court Civil Division.

There will be an opportunity for all attorneys at the Reception to meet and mingle with the Judges.

This Reception is also being sponsored by The Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association and the Barristers Association. Members of The Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association may attend for $25.00. Those members of The Young Lawyers Division who wish to become members of The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia may do so and receive a $25.00 credit towards their dues for 2017. The annual dues for those lawyers who have been practicing for less than three years is $75.00. The annual dues for those lawyers who have been practicing for three years or more is $95.00.

These dues enable a lawyer to attend all three Receptions sponsored by The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia. The Reception begins at 5:15 p.m. at the Union League at 140 South Broad Street in Philadelphia.
