The Probate & Trust Law Section, through its many committees, promotes the objectives of the Philadelphia Bar Association in the substantive fields of estate planning and administration, trust administration, and guardianship of minors and incapacitated persons, as well as in the practice and procedure before the Register of Wills and Orphans’ Court Division. The Section, which includes lawyers in private practice, government practice and in-house counsel, sponsors seven committees, which provide important opportunities to grow in an area of expertise, contribute to the quality of the profession and network with colleagues.

Excellent continuing legal education programs are presented, which offer opportunities to participate as student or teacher.

Topics of recent education programs include:
• Will and Trust Clauses;
• Charitable Giving;
• Appellate Practice for the Orphans’ Court Practitioners;
• Marketing the Estate Practice;
• Estate Planning Techniques and Strategies for Real Estate;
• Pitfalls and Opportunities in Planning Retirement Benefits.

The annual meeting of the Section, in early December, combines a substantive seminar on a topic of current interest with a business meeting highlighting the activities of the committees through the year, followed by a well-attended reception.
