The hours immediately following a fire are critical. Panic and confusion reign. But even as emotional concerns engulf your client, practical questions take over. What should they do first? How will they deal with the insurance people? Who's on their side?

Since 1964, IAB's expert claims adjusters have been helping clients like yours cope with and recover from catastrophe. We don't work for the insurance company. We work for the policy holders. Our experience, tenacity and knowledge of every detail result in the maximum allowable settlement – typically far greater than they'd get on their own – and restore peace of mind.

Someday, a client in crisis may turn to you for help. That's when you turn to us. Call IAB – before the smoke clears. 1-800-441-7109 or iabclaims.com
