

Sponsors of The Philadelphia Global Initiative on the Rule of Law:

Temple University Beasley School of Law

International Law Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association

United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia

Promotional partners:

ABA Center for Human Rights, ABA Section of International Law & Philadelphia Bar Association

The Philadelphia Global Initiative on the Rule of Law

with the support of the ICC

YEARS

FIGHTING IMPUNITY

Celebrate - Reflect - Promote

September 10, 2012

2:00 pm-6:00 pm

Free Library

1900 Vine Street

Philadelphia PA 19103

Montgomery Room

In response to the American Bar Association's call for education about the International Criminal Court, we - the sponsors of the Philadelphia Global Initiative on the Rule of Law and our regional, national and international partners - seek to promote knowledge and understanding about the ICC, as well as to reflect generally on the globalization of the rule of law and what these developments portend for humankind.

The kick off for a year-long series of seminars and events will take place on September 10th. You are invited to attend this conference to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the ICC, and in conjunction the 225th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution in Philadelphia, with dignitaries, professionals and students from our universities/colleges.

CLE Credits available!

For registration and information please visit:

www.una-gp.org/global.initiative

Sponsors of The Philadelphia Global Initiative on the Rule of Law:

Temple University Beasley School of Law
International Law Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association
United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia

Promotional partners:

ABA Center for Human Rights, ABA Section of International Law & Philadelphia Bar Association

Celebrate-Reflect-Promote

2:00pm-6:00pm

Welcome address (via video)

Judge Sang-Hyun Song, President, International Criminal Court

Moderated Panel Discussion

An Historical Perspective: The US Constitution and the Rome Statute -- Foundational Elements in the Establishment of a Rule of Law for International Affairs

Panel Members

Stephen J. Rapp, Ambassador for war crimes issues, State Department

Christian Wenaweser, immediate past president of the ASP of the ICC, permanent representative of Liechtenstein to the United Nations

Thomas Graham, Ambassador retired, active on disarmament, peace and international relations

John Washburn, Convenor of the American NGO coalition for the ICC

James Silkenat, President-elect of the American Bar Association

Moderators

Professor Jacqueline C. Reich of Chestnut Hill College

Professor Roger S. Clark of Rutgers School of law-Camden

Introduction of the Philadelphia Rule of Law Model UN Project

Patrick Madden, Executive Director of the United Nations Association of the USA with support from members of PENNIAA, organizers of the Ivy League Model UN

End note

Don Kraus, Chief Executive Officer of Citizens for Global Solutions

with the support of the ICC

YEARS
FIGHTING IMPUNITY

Networking Reception

For registration please visit: www.una-gp.org/global.initiative